IV. PROCEDURES

A. The ADDPC shall hold all meetings in accordance with the Open Meeting Law of the State of Arizona, Arizona Revised Statutes §38-431- 431.09.

B. Quorum

A quorum is defined as one more than half of the voting members of the full ADDPC counting all filled and vacant positions. The total number of members represented on the ADDPC is twenty-three.

1. A quorum for the Full ADDPC meeting is defined as having 13 or more members present at the meeting.
2. In order to take action on approved agenda items during any ADDPC meetings, one half, plus one of the voting members must be present.
3. During any ADDPC public meeting, an ADDPC member may be disqualified from voting on specific agenda items if a conflict of interest exists. When disqualification occurs, the member(s) affected may no longer be counted in maintaining a quorum.

4. During any ADDPC public meeting, members removing themselves from the meeting either temporarily (including telephone calls, bathroom breaks) or due to early departure, will not be counted in maintaining a quorum.

C. Voting

All decisions shall be made by majority vote of a quorum of the members of the full ADDPC, standing committee, or special committee. The Chairperson shall have the final vote if a tie is reached by the members of the full ADDPC

D. Meetings

1. The ADDPC shall meet at least quarterly, or as determined by the Chairperson. All meetings shall be held in compliance with the Open Meeting Law of the State of Arizona, Arizona Revised Statutes §38-431 - 431.09.
2. Minutes shall be kept of all full ADDPC, standing committee and special committee meetings. Such minutes shall be posted on the ADDPC website and made available to the public upon request, in compliance with the Open Meeting Law of the State of Arizona, Arizona Revised Statutes §38-431.01(B) and §38-431.01(D).

3. Unless otherwise noted in the bylaws, the Council will follow Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised (see Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised, 10th Edition).

E. Executive Session

Executive Session means a gathering of a quorum of members of a public body from which the public is excluded for one or more of the reasons prescribed in the Open Meeting Law of the State of Arizona, Arizona Revised Statute §38-31.03. In addition to the members of the ADDPC, officers, appointees and employees as provided in A.R.S. §38-431.03 and the auditor general as provided in A.R.S. §41-1279.04, only individuals whose presence is reasonably necessary in order for the ADDPC to carry out its executive session responsibilities may attend the executive session.

1. Before the ADDPC may go into executive session, a majority of the members constituting a quorum must vote in a public meeting to hold the executive session, as stated in A.R.S. §38-431.03(A).
2. Once the majority of members of the ADDPC have voted to hold an executive session, the Chairperson of the ADDPC shall ask the public to leave and remove all materials such as briefcases and backpacks to ensure that no recording devices have been left in the room. All persons must leave the meeting except the members of the ADDPC and those individuals whose presence is reasonably necessary for the ADDPC to carry out its executive session responsibilities.
3. The Chairperson should remind all present that the business conducted in executive sessions is confidential pursuant to A.R.S. §431.03(C).

F. In executive session, the ADDPC may discuss and consider only the specific matters authorized by the statute. Furthermore, the ADDPC may not take a vote or make a final decision in the executive session, but rather must reconvene in a public meeting for purposes of taking the binding vote or making final decisions. Taking a straw poll or informal or preliminary vote in executive session is unlawful under Open Meeting Law, A.R.S. §38-431.03(D).

G. The Open Meeting Law permits only seven categories of topics to be discussed in executive session, per A.R.S. §38-431.03

1. Personnel discussions
2. Confidential records
3. Legal advice
4. Litigation, contract negotiations, and settlement discussions
5. Employee salary discussions
6. International, interstate, and tribal negotiations
7. Purchase, sale, or lease of real property

V. ETHICS/CONFLICT OF INTEREST

ADDPC members shall abide by and follow State of Arizona Conflict of Interest, Arizona Revised Statutes §38-501-511. ADDPC members have an obligation to avoid conflicts of interest or any appearance of conflicts between their personal interests and the interests of the ADDPC. Conflicts of interest may often relate to situations where a member uses influence with the ADDPC for personal gain. ADDPC members should only speak publicly on behalf of the ADDPC when authorized. When speaking publicly on behalf of the ADDPC members must represent the ADDPC interests and not their own.

At the beginning of each full ADDPC, standing and special committee meeting,— members will individually disclose their identified conflict of interest. All attendees will have their verbal responses recorded in the minutes, if identifying a conflict.

A. All ADDPC members are prohibited from:

1. Using their position as an ADDPC member to give any person, organization, or entity special advantage over anyone else.
2. Personally profiting from ADDPC activities.
3. Disclosing or using information obtained by virtue of their position with the ADDPC to give special advantage to any person, organization or company.

4. Allowing or appearing to allow conflicts of interest to affect their judgment of the operations of the ADDPC.
5. Engaging in activities that either create or give the appearance of conflict of interest.
6. Casting a vote on any matter that would provide direct financial benefit to the members or otherwise give the appearance of a conflict of interest (DD Act Section 124(c)(5)(D).

VI. MEMBER STIPENDS & REIMBURSEMENTS

ADDPC members may be eligible for payment of a stipend in accordance with ADDPC policy, if the member is not employed or must forfeit wages from other employment to attend ADDPC meetings and/or perform other ADDPC duties.

ADDPC members may be eligible for reimbursement of reasonable and necessary expenses (including expenses for personal assistance) in accordance with existing ADDPC policies, when attending ADDPC meetings and/or performing other ADDPC duties.

VII. AMENDMENTS TO THE BYLAWS

The bylaws of the ADDPC may be amended at any time. Amendments to the bylaws must be submitted to all members of the ADDPC at least seven days prior to any full ADDPC meeting in which the bylaws will be reviewed and voted upon. Amendments to the bylaws may be offered up to the Chairperson and Executive Director for consideration.
